Introducing New CIS Faculty

New for 2013, CIS hosted “Imaging Science Immersion,” a sort of Back to School Kick Off prior to the first day of classes.

The Immersion was designed to provide CIS students with an overview of the imaging field and the academic and career opportunities that it offers. The event included a variety of activities, including lectures, workshops, and a networking reception.

The Immersion was a huge success, with over 150 students and faculty in attendance. The event was so popular that it sold out within the first few hours, and there was a waiting list of over 100 participants.
